

Marketing Gurukul

Overview

The Marketing Gurukul at TMTTC is a unique five-day programme that covers approaches and strategies essential for marketing strategists, practitioners, and executives. The programme takes marketing professionals deep inside the function and is designed to provide the most relevant inputs and includes topics such as Social Media Marketing, Mystery Shopping and Analytics for Marketing.

The programme adopts a practice based approach whereby modern day challenges of marketers are discussed in depth and learning is enabled through intensive discussions, faculty inputs, and experience sharing by leading practitioners from the industry. The focus is on contemporary issues like customer orientation, linkage between value and price, competitive strategies, and emphasizing the relationship orientation. The overarching objective of the programme is to reconnect marketing with the overall business purpose of the organization.
